Welcome to Bloomington! Located in beautiful southern Indiana, Bloomington has a rich history and is the home of Indiana University.

What is a Volksmarch? A volksmarch is a non-competitive walk along a prescribed trail and is designed to encourage physical fitness, promote camaraderie and to enjoy nature. It is not a contest of speed or endurance. Each participant is encouraged to walk at a pace that is comfortable and enjoyable.

The Pate Hollow / Paynetown Year-Round Volksmarch is a self-guided walk along a permanent trail using a set of printed instructions and a map obtained at the start/finish point. This event is sanctioned by the American Volkssport Association (AVA), a member of the International Federation of Popular Sports (IVV).

Trail Rating - The trail is rated 2B and is not suitable for regular strollers or wheelchairs. Jogging strollers may have difficulty.

Trail Description – The trail is a joint effort between the Hoosier National Forest and the Indiana DNR. Hike on challenging trails through a beautiful forest of mixed hardwoods with views of Lake Monroe. The walk includes grassy and rocky terrain, hills, creeks, and gullies. Restrooms are available at the start/finish point if the office is open, and at the Paynetown campground play area. Restrooms are not available along the Pate Hollow Trail.

What should you bring? Many walkers will find hiking poles to be helpful. Plan on bringing and carrying your own water.
